SAMI KIEHELÄ APPOINTED ADVISOR TO NEWSEC CORPORATE FINANCE TEAM

Sami Kiehelä has been appointed Advisor to the Corporate Finance team of Newsec Advice Oy as of 1st March 2010. Kiehelä has previously worked as an Advisor in Newsec Advice Oy's Transaction team for more than one year and before that as a part-time Analyst during his studies.

"I have worked at Newsec for a couple of years and been involved in many interesting projects. Now on the threshold of graduation I will start in a new team with my new Manager Håkan Malmund. In this new position I will be able to take even more advantage of my finance studies. We will be in close co-operation with the Transaction team so I am able to continue to work with my fabulous colleagues", says Sami Kiehelä from Newsec Advice Oy.

"At the same time as we are strengthening our Corporate Finance operations Sami got an interesting opportunity to deepen his expertise.. Sami will also be responsible for developing Newsec's market forecasting in Finland, which will support the service range of our other teams. We are very happy to keep Sami with us also after his graduation", tells Managing Director Juhani Reen from Newsec Advice Oy.
