Three RICS-Chartered Surveyors at Newsec-Maakanta Oy

Hannu Ridell, Juha Nummi and Kaj Söderman have received the valued RICS title in Property valuation. RICS is the abbreviation of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. The authorization requires passing a demanding test and having several years of experience and knowledge of the branch.

The authorization is valued especially by international financial institutions and investors. The system has its origin in Great Britain in the 1970's. RICS Chartered Surveyors are committed to follow the valuation standards and ethic rules stated in their Red Book.

Clients can be sure that a RICS authorized surveyor has the top knowledge, says Hannu Ridell, CEO of Newsec-Maakanta.

Newsec-Maakanta has eight Property Analysts, of which six are Authorized Property Valuers approved by the Central Chamber of Commerce in Finland.
